Practice Exercises

1(1) Names and Places: Exercise A

Make a sentence with these words.

Example: Max / name / my / is __My name is Max.__

1. is / Kathy / name / my _____

2. come / New York / from / I _____

3. Max / is / this _____

4. from / comes / San Francisco / he _____

5. from / comes / New York / Kathy _____

1(1) Names and Places: Exercise B

Circle the correct word.

Example: This (is) am Max.

1. Max come, comes from San Francisco.

2. "Hello. My name is, am Max."

3. "I come, comes from San Francisco.

4. Kathy come, comes from New York.

5. She come from, comes from New York.

15

Practice Exercises

1(1) Names and Places: Exercise C

Change each sentence to a sentence with she or her.

Example: "I come from New York."   She comes from New York

1. "My name is Kathy." _____

2. "I'm from the US." _____

3. Kathy is from New York. _____

4. "I'm a woman, not a man." _____

5. Kathy is a woman, not a man." _____

1(1) Names and Places: Exercise D

Answer the questions.

Example: Where is Max from?   __Max is from San Francisco.__

1. Where does Max come from? _____

2. Where is Kathy from? _____

3. Who comes from New York? _____

4. Who is from San Francisco? _____

5. Which person is a woman? _____

Practice Exercises

1(1) Names and Places: Exercise E

Fill in the blank in the sentence with isn't or doesn't

Example: Max comes from the US. He __doesn't__ come from France.

1. His name _____ Bob; his name is Max.

2. Pierre is from Paris. He _____ come from the US.

3. Kathy speaks English. She _____ speak Japanese.

4. Zork comes from far away. He _____ from our world.

5. Pierre is French. He _____ British.

I 1(1) Names and Places: Exercise F

Make these sentences into negative sentences using don't, isn't, or doesn't.

Example: Max is from New York. __Max isn't from New York.__

1. Kathy is from Paris. _____

2. "I come from the US." _____

3. Pierre is American. _____

4. Kathy speaks French. _____

5. "I speak Japanese." _____

17

Practice Exercises

I 1(1) Names and Places: Exercise G

Circle the correct word.
Example: Max   come, (comes)   from San Francisco.

1. Max and Kathy   come, comes   from the US.

2. Max and Pierre   is, are   men.

3. Kathy and Max   speak, speaks   English.

4. Pierre   come, comes   from France.

5. He doesn't   come, comes   from the US.

6. Kathy and Max   is, are   not from Europe.

7. Kathy doesn't   speak, speaks   French.

8. Pierre doesn't   come, comes   from Japan.

9. They   am, is, are   both from the United States.

10. They   don't, doesn't   speak Japanese.

1(1) Names and Places: Exercise H

Match each part of a sentence on the left with the rest of the sentence on the right.
Example: h. What   h   is your name?

a. What is   1. _____   come from Europe.

b. Where do   2. _____   are you from?

c. Where   3. _____   is Kathy.

d. My name   4. _____   doesn't speak French.

e. I'm not   5. _____   you come from?

f. She   6. _____   your name?

g. They don't   7. _____   from the US.

Practice Exercises

1(1) Names and Places: Exercise I

Read each answer ("A"), then write the question ("Q").

Example: Q. Who   __comes from France?__
               A. Pierre comes from France.

               Q. Where __do you come from?__
               A. I come from New York.

1Q.   Who _____

A.   That is Kathy.

2Q.   Where _____

A.   I'm from San Francisco.

3Q.   Where _____

A.   San Francisco is in California.

4Q.   Who _____

A.   Kathy does (Kathy comes from New York.)

5Q.   Where _____

A.   They are from the United States

6Q.   What _____

A.   They come from Brazil.

7Q.   What _____

A.   He speaks French and German.

8Q.   Does _____

A.   No, she doesn't. She doesn't speak German.

19